- Self-Assessment – The self-assessment is not due this year since the trauma rules have not been finalized yet. Information and ideas have been gathered from other RACs on how best to complete the assessment.
- Symposium – There was a meeting at noon today. The ticket portal / link for Eventbrite will be sent out so individuals can register for the symposium. The vendors and sponsors have been able to use their Eventbrite link for payments which has helped speed things up this year.
- Senate Bill 8 Update – A budget adjustment will be done in the future for the admin and incentive costs based on how well the students do on their tests. The incentives are paid to the schools for properly preparing the students to pass on their first attempt with the test. The amount of tuition funds used as of June 1st is $142,453.91 for the region. Students with CHI St Joseph, Jewett EMS and Robertson County EMS have received tuition payments recently. The group will need to look at the limits/allocations for each agency in the next few meetings. Future expenses include a large EMT course that Bryan Fire is hosting.

- C. Consider for approval the attainment of website re-design services – There are several regulatory reasons that the BVRAC website has to be updated.
